Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico is both heartbreaking and infuriating. It causes deep sorrow, both for the initial loss of human life and for the deep and lasting damage to an ecology that provides life and livelihoods for so many of God's creatures. At the same time we grieve that the natural beauty of this region, a sign of God's marvelous creativity, has been defiled.

Moving to indignation and anger over the neglect and carelessness that led to this disaster, both in private industry and in government regulation, is understandable. However, to do so without recognizing the responsibility we all share -- as consumers of petroleum products, as investors in an economy that makes intensive and insistent energy demands, and as citizens responsible for the care of creation -- lacks credibility and integrity. An honest accounting of what happened (and what failed to happen) must include our own repentance.

Nonetheless, God remains faithful in restoring the creation and human community. Among the voices that despair and condemn, we have a witness of hope to proclaim.

First, God, who made the creation and made it good, has not abandoned it. Day after day God sustains life in this world, and the powerful vitality of God's creation, though defiled, is not destroyed. The life-giving power of God's creative goodness remains at work, even in the Gulf of Mexico. The Spirit will continue to renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104:30, as we just sang at Pentecost). All who care for the earth and work for the restoration of its vitality can be confident that they are not pursuing a lost cause. They serve in concert with God's own creative and renewing power.

Moreover, the human family need not drown in a flood of suspicion and recrimination that is more toxic and more lasting than the oil that floods the Gulf can ever be. The cleansing waters of baptism in Christ -- who died not for the righteous, but for the unrighteous -- bring forgiveness and reconciliation with God. In this reconciled life with God we have the freedom to move beyond mutual condemnations and hostility to give a powerful witness of a reconciled community that lives in service of the creation and the neighbor. By refusing to surrender to the toxicity of recrimination, we can convince others that they can join us safely in the life and service of this community.

Responding to a challenge of this size and complexity will call upon countless insights and skills, embodied in hundreds of occupations and trades, and upon the collective strength and will of us all. God's Holy Spirit has abundantly blessed the human community with the gifts needed to do this work. We can do it with sober confidence, good will and even joy.

There are times for mourning and for repentance, as well as for reconciliation and commitment to the creation's care. They come at different moments for different people. As you serve in your communities, I commend to you resources for worship, study and action that express the hope of Christians who see God's creative goodness, Jesus' forgiving reconciliation and the Spirit's abundant gifts for service. This is a moment when the human community needs to hear a word of true hope, and we have one to speak.

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

The Lord is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.

- Psalm 145:8-9

Our retirement party for Janet Meland was a joy – to celebrate with her and to have such good fellowship on a Sunday morning. Thank you, all who were a part of that special day.

We also need to recognize two other ladies who have stepped back from their many years of service to the church – Lee Donnelly in singing in the choir and playing for church on Sunday morning and Freda Haidle for her years of caring for the plants and flowers both inside and outside the church.

Their service has always been a quiet one. They have just done what God called them to do. Lee's love of music has been evident since she and Nick first came to Glendive. She played for many years at Makoshika Park services and at our first service; she played the guitar at opening worship; she sang in the choir; and she has accompanied for choir as well as played for funerals. Lee has been faithful.

Freda thinks she has taken care of the flowers and plants at Zion for about 29 years. If you ever watched her at work with the plants, she has a real sense of God's creation and the mystery and wonder of living and growing things.

Plants do well for Freda. It is as if they know she is someone who is God's instrument in making this a more beautiful place in which to live. Freda has been faithful.

Our thanks as Zion Lutheran community of faith for the wonderful work these women have done over the years. We have been richly blessed.. And God bless all of you out there who are servants of God in the area that speaks to you – leadership, caring for others, teaching the children, working with youth, mission and outreach, worship and music, building and maintenance.

Report from the Synod Assembly

Attending the Montana Synod yearly assembly is vital to the nurturing of our congregational life. At the assembly, delegates, both pastors and lay delegates, are challenged to take the word of faith seriously. We are called as God's people to live that life wherever we find ourselves. A few reminders from the 2010 assembly in Billings. (Thanks to Dan and Nancy Gerike for being this year's delegates. Be a delegate. Great Falls in 2011)

1. Recognition of the Lay Pastoral Associates' program is a reminder of the responsibility lay people have to uphold the life of the congregation in which they worship. The classes offer a "growth in faith" element which strengthens personal spirituality regardless of what you do for your church. Eastern Montana congregations have found the LPA program vital to maintaining the congregations of this region. Pastors do not readily choose a parish in Eastern Montana and lay pastors have been a "life-saver" to congregations everywhere. This is not, however, the direction of the classes, only something that may grow out of the experience if you desire. Zion needs people in the LPA program. With only one pastor, we need individuals to step forward and be a part of our ministry in this time and place. Classes are on week-ends and are only twice a year.

2. The ELCA is encouraging the wider church to begin including people under the age of 35 to be actively involved in the leadership roles and life of the church. Whether it is in the kitchen, working with missions, building and maintenance, church council, we need you to point out young men and women to serve as delegates to conferences, to represent us at various meetings and to work for the good of our congregation.

3. The Book of Faith initiative is being encouraged throughout the church. Bible Study and education is vital to our growth in faith. Zion will do a Book of Faith study in the fall, in September, on stories from Genesis. It will run on four Tuesday mornings or four Wednesday evenings after church, depending on your choice. If participants like the study we will continue to offer the studies throughout the year.

4. Growing in God's Field is beginning its third year. Located in Helena, the Montana Synod offers this evangelism event October 8-9, 2010. This year Zion Lutheran has been asked to present a sectional on rural ministry, what are we doing in the far-flung reaches of Eastern Montana. We have also been asked to bring a table centerpiece with the theme of sunflowers involved. I don't want to do this alone and would deeply appreciate some assistance both in presenting as well as putting together the centerpiece. Yes, it is time out of your busy days, but we have something to offer that others should hear and we will learn from others visiting and at workshops. Please consider making this part of your fall schedule.

5. The Lutheran magazine was represented at the assembly by the editor of the magazine. I had an opportunity to visit with him and he had high praise for Zion and our commitment to providing The Lutheran to a large number of our members. This magazine comments on world religions, has timely articles and studies, including news from the Montana Synod, as well as many thought-provoking opinions.

6. One speaker at an evangelism workshop I attended noted that 65% of all people looking for a new church go to the web first. Zion's website is www.zionglendive.com. Check us out.

My greatest thank you to those who had me in their thoughts and prayers. I am doing great and thank everyone from the bottom of my heart.

Former member holds National Office

Kristine Peterson, daughter of the late Clifford Peterson and Carol Peterson, who resides at Extended Care, and sister of Laurel Dassinger of Glendive, was recently elected the National President of the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses at their convention in Washington, D.C. Along with some 7,000 nurses, Laurel attended the convention and saw her sister assume her new position.

Kristine is a clinical nurse specialist at Aspirus Wasau Hospital, Wasau, Wisconsin and brings more than 30 years of critical care nursing experience to the organization's presidency. She joined the AACCN in 1981.

Her theme for her tenure as president is, "Stand Tall." The national newsletter of the AACN quotes Kristine, "AACN's story is of a community that has always stood tall. We're organized. We're bold. We're clear about our contributions to patients, to nurses and to health-care." Peterson challenged the audience to deliver on the promises nurses make to themselves, their patients and their patients' families, saying the foundation of these promises lies in the deep conviction nurses have in their personal mission and professional obligations. "Let's be proud of what we do," said Kristine.

Kristine is a graduate of DCHS and St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, one of the colleges of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Her parents and sister have been long-time members of Zion. Kristine was confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church in Glendive.

FOOD BANK NEEDS FOR JULY

Dawson County Food Bank Report

With the assistance of ACTION for Eastern Montana, the Food Bank is operated by the Assembly of God church with Pastor Brad Kelly. Your donation of food may be left at Zion in our Food Bank box at the church. Sharon Batterman picks up the food and delivers it to the Food Bank. If you want to handle your own food, it may be left at the Assembly of God church.

The Food Bank is located at the Prairie Economic Development Center behind the KXGN building. It is open the third Thursday of each month from 1-4 p.m. According to the last report, approximately 40 people receive food baskets on a regular basis. Emergency food baskets number approximately 15 per month. Food is also shared with the Mental Health Agency and Boys and Girls Club. Some commodities come through the Montana Food Bank System.

The Food Bank continues to be a necessary outreach in Dawson County. Thank you for your efforts. Pastor Avis serves on the Food Bank Board.

CHANGE FOR HUNGER

The June, Change For Hunger, $25.69 was given to the Loaves & Fishes.. July change will be given to World Hunger. Thank you for your support for local & world hunger causes.

Nurse's Nook - from Sharon Allard
Blood Pressure & Low Fluid Intake

As the heart contracts and relaxes, circulating blood exerts pressure on the inner arterial walls. Blood pressure measurement indirectly reflects this pressure and provides information about arterial resilience and resistance, cardiac output, circulatory status and fluid balance. Low amounts of oral fluids ingested may increase or lower blood pressure. Adequate intake of fluids can only be proven by drinking from a quart or larger container to document the amount. Taking medication for high blood pressure and low intake of fluids may cause light headedness and a faster pulse. If the drug is excreted by the kidneys, drug concentrations in the elderly may rise to toxic levels due to poor fluid volume. Water is needed to help the kidneys excrete the medication. Drinking water is the best fluid.

"MISSION MOMENT"

Some pastors in North America serve multipoint parishes, spending sometimes hours on the road between congregations, even on Sunday mornings to get to the next place in time for worship. This is not always easy, especially if you factor in all the time spent behind the wheel and in all kinds of weather.

In some parts of the world, some parishes encompass dozens of congregations: pastors may have to travel by motorbike or on foot, and each congregation in the circuit may only get a visit every few months because of great distances.

In parts of Sabah, East Malaysia, pastors of the Basel Christian Church of Malaysia serving among the Murut indigenous population often have to travel distances in their parishes. For some, this involves using a boat on the rivers.

The Rev. Mathius serves a parish centered around Pagalungan, not far from the border with Indonesia. One of his congregations is an hour away — by boat. Sunday after Sunday, and even on weekdays, he plies the river in his boat, surrounded by virgin rain forest.

It's not as easy as it sounds. The river has rapids, rocks, and other obstacles. Usually one needs a "pilot" at the front of the longboat to check on water depths, considering the changing water volume during the course of the year. One has to not only protect the boat, but also protect the precious outboard motor.

The Rev. Mathius has to know the river well to travel safely. There may not be time to enjoy the scenery. But this is where his ministry lies, his commitment and passion.

LUTHERAN WOMAN TODAY SUMMER BIBLE STUDY Third Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. July, August

Patience in Prayer Power in Prayer

If you do not receive LUTHERAN WOMAN TODAY magazine, call the church office at 377-3369. The Bible Study is contained in the magazine. We will be glad to make you a copy. Led by Pastor Avis.

Book of Faith - Bible Study

Do you want to learn more about the Bible and the stories you have heard over the years? Do you want a deeper understanding of the Word of God?

This fall we will become involved with the Book of Faith study that is spreading throughout the Lutheran church in America. We will begin with a four-week session in September entitled: A Gardner, Two Travelers and a Cheat (Adam, Sarah and Abraham, and Jacob) – an interesting title for a look at some of the stories in Genesis.

The sign-up sheet will be in the narthex over the summer. Sign up for a Tuesday morning session or Wednesday evening in September. We will need to have five people in order to have a session. There is a cost for materials, from $4-$6 depending on how many we purchase.

If there is an interest, further studies will continue throughout the year. I am looking for leaders to assist with these sessions. The preparation material is easy to use and usually sessions are from 3-8 weeks depending on the study.

“ZION RELAY FOR LIFE”

Team Zion is still looking for people to walk the Relay for Life. Relay is July 23rd (the 4th Friday instead of the 3rd as it usually is) this year. If you or someone you know would like to register please contact Cami White at 377-2151. Our primary fundraiser is selling raffle tickets for 15 prizes. If you would like to buy a $5 raffle ticket for the cause that would be a great help. Please contact any of these church members: Cami White, Carole Dick, Michelle Sickler, Cammy Sue Oakland, Maureen Lundman, Norman Unterseher. We will have a sign up sheet for walking times if you would rather just come and walk for a while. We all know this is a great cause and just getting involved (even just a little) will do great things. Thanks so much! Cami
